

Trapped N Da Trap
by Thot King

What would you do if you were trapped?
Trapped by the vicious control of systemic racism.
Trapped in the ghetto where your head is on a swivel,
like it's World War III.
Trapped because you're an endangered species hunted by the boys in blue and by people with the same hue as you.

This is real life! No sugar coatin'. Explicit reality.
Trapped by poverty on every corner. Drugs on every corner.
Miseducation on every corner. You're cornered!
Where you gonna go? Right into the trap and you don't even know.
This is the story of a Black man that does something about it.
Or at least tries...
